- On a special note, if you do not know about the wounded/ returning soldier program called "The boot campaign" I encourage you to check it out. It is a grass roots campaign started by 5 women with no other motive other than to help our soldiers returning home from service. It's very simple, you buy a pair of boots just like the ones our troops wear from the web site and $45.00 of that purchase go directly to assisting returning veterans. It is an absolutely outstanding grassroots American project. The web address is: <http://www.bootcampaign.com/welcome.html>
